higher education & training

Department:
Higher Education and Training
REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

MARKING GUIDELINE

NATIONAL CERTIFICATE (VOCATIONAL)

INTRODUCTION TO POLICING PRACTICES
NQF LEVEL 2

22 November 2024

This marking guideline consists of 6 pages.

Copyright reserved

SECTION A

QUESTION 1

1.1 B
1.2 B
1.3 C
1.4 A
1.5 C
1.6 D
1.7 B
1.8 D
1.9 D
1.10 A

(10 × 1) [10]

QUESTION 2

2.1 False
2.2 False
2.3 False
2.4 True
2.5 True

(5 × 1) [5]

QUESTION 3

3.1 E
3.2 A
3.3 C
3.4 H
3.5 D
3.6 F
3.7 J/B
3.8 B/J
3.9 I
3.10 G

(10 × 1) [10]

QUESTION 4

4.1 Unproductive
4.2 Physically
4.3 Advance rank
4.4 Middle rank
4.5 Retirement rank

(5 × 1) [5]

TOTAL SECTION A: 30

Copyright reserved

SECTION B

QUESTION 5

5.1 5.1.1 The place where an offence has been committed and forensic evidence may be gathered.✓ Or is any location that may be associated with a committed crime.✓ (2)

5.1.2
- To determine how a crime was committed
- To connect a suspect with the crime or identify the criminal
- To clear an innocent person
- To corroborate statements from the victim, witness and suspect

(Any 3 × 1) (3)

5.1.3 The methods, techniques✓ and instruments of the natural sciences to investigate crime.✓ (2)

5.1.4
- Indoor scene in buildings
- Outdoor scenes that are in the open, for example in the veld
- Mobile scenes such as in a vehicle or vessel
- Person-oriented crime scene where the body and clothing of a person supply the clues, such as in rape cases (4)

5.1.5
- Handle the evidence in such a way that it is preserved for analysis by experts in the laboratory.
- It must reach the laboratory in more or less the same condition in which it was found at the scene.
- It must not be tampered with, damaged or contaminated in any way.
- When evidence is handed over from one person to another, it must be recorded, so that there is a record of who handled it at any specific time. (4)

5.2 General Fannie Masemola (1)

5.3 The Defence Act indicates that military police officials may perform police functions at any place, within their jurisdiction. (2)

5.4
- To control traffic
- Policing metropolitan and municipal by-laws
- Crime prevention

(Any 2 × 1) (2)

[20]

TOTAL SECTION B: 20

SECTION C

QUESTION 6

6.1
- Rest or sleep
- Nutrition or diet
- Exercise
- Management of stress (4)

6.2
- Healthier joints
- Lower blood pressure
- Better cardiovascular function
- Improved bone density
- Higher energy levels
- Better sleep
- Loss of weight
- Better mood because of endorphins
- Stronger immune system
- Slower ageing and longer life
- Better-controlled blood sugar levels
- Reduced risk of lifestyle diseases (Any 3 × 1) (3)

6.3
- A run covering a total of 2,4 kilometres
- Push-up exercises
- Sit-up exercises
- The 25 metres shuttle run (Any 3 × 1) (3)

6.4
- The maintenance of an impartial, accountable, transparent and efficient police service
- The appointment of provincial commissioners
- The investigation and prevention of organised crime
- International police liaison
- Keeping and provision of crime intelligence data, criminal records and statistics
- The training of members of the Service
- The recruitment, promotion and transfer of all members of the Service
- The provision of forensic laboratory services
- National protection services
- Establishment of a special task force
- Establishment and maintenance of a national public order policing unit

(Any 5 × 1) (5)

6.5
- The proposed organogram must reflect the objectives and plans of the organisation.
- The proposed organogram must reflect the authority that will be available to managers and commanders.
- The proposed organogram must also indicate the environment in which the organisation will function.
- The proposed organogram must indicate the people or employees. (4 × 2) (8)

6.6 A drawing that shows the structure of an organisation✓ and the different ranks of the people working in the organisation.✓ (2)

6.7 The racist and discriminatory policy of the Nationalist government that enforced strict separation between non-white and white peoples✓ suppressed the enemies of white Afrikaner rule, and entrenched a deeply unjust inequality between the races✓ which severely disadvantaged black South Africans politically, economically and educationally.✓

(Allow student's own interpretation) (3)

6.8 Is a territory is governed and controlled by a government from a different territory or country. (2)

[30]

SECTION D

QUESTION 7

7.1 The pre-colonial societies of South Africa have always had some from policing present.✓ All the groups of people living within South Africa had their own rules which they followed.✓
In the African way, the chief had overall authority over the land and the people.✓ Individual justice was normally dealt with at a gathering of all the males of a particular clan.✓ After Jan van Riebeeck's arrival at the Cape, the Ratelwag (Rattle watch) was established on 3 July 1686.✓
The first police force at the Cape had almost the same functions as the Metropolitan Police in London.✓
The South African Police (SAP) can trace its origin back to the Dutch watch.✓
On 1 November 1835, the existing police units were replaced by✓ the Cape Constabulary founded on the principles of the London Metropolitan Police.✓
The Cape Constabulary became the Cape Town Police Force in 1840.✓

(Allow student's own interpretation) (10)

7.2
- Observation:✓ The observation of the police officer on the street doing police work✓
- Informers:✓ Every member of a community, being the 'eyes and ears' of the police, is valuable, and so are the comments of the community on things that are happening. ✓
- Surveillance:✓ This is the close observation of a suspect, for example setting up observation post to observe a building where a suspect is living.✓
- Covert techniques:✓ In certain circumstances, the police may also use covert techniques to obtain information.✓
- Data analysis:✓ Analyses of police dockets, statements and inputs of experts in crime information are also used.✓
- Interpol:✓ South Africa is a member of the International Criminal Police Organisation. Valuable international information is sent to the police in South Africa from this source.✓
- SARPCCO:✓ This membership has the same advantages as those gained from membership of Interpol.✓ (Any 5 × 2) (10)

[20]

OR

QUESTION 8

8.1
- 1950 Group Areas Act ✓provided for areas to be declared for the exclusive use of one particular racial group and made it compulsory for people to live in an area designated for the group under which they were classified.✓
- 1950 Suppression of Communism Act✓ prohibited organisations and people from promoting communism.✓
- 1950 The Population Registration Act✓ The classification of all South Africans into one of our racial groups✓
- 1950 The Immorality Act✓ prohibited sexual relations across the colour bar.
- 1951 The Prevention of Illegal Squatting Act✓ granted magistrates the power to evict squatters from urban areas and to demolish their dwellings.✓
- 1965 The Criminal Procedure Amendment Act✓ (180-Day Detention Law) empowered the attorney-general to order the detention of people likely to give evidence for the state in any criminal proceedings. Detainees could be held in solitary confinement for six months and only state officials were permitted access to them.✓
- 1967 The Terrorism Act✓ was passed, in terms of which police were empowered to detained people in solitary confinement for indefinite periods with no access to visitors. The public was not entitled to information relating to the identity and number of people detained.✓ (Any 5 × 2) (10)

8.2
- Having a plan which will enable government to tackle crime in a way which uses all the resources of all government agencies, as well as civil society.
- Promoting a vision how we, as a nation, are going to tackle crime
- The development of national crime prevention programmes
- Using and encouraging communities to participate in helping to fight.
- Carrying out ongoing research and evaluation of existing crime prevention programmes
- Conducting crime prevention programmes at provincial and local level

(Any 5 × 2) (10
[20]

TOTAL SECTION D: 20
GRAND TOTAL: 100

Copyright reserved