QUESTION 2

Indicate whether the following statements are TRUE or FALSE. Choose the answer and write only 'True' or 'False' next to the question number (2.1–2.10) in the ANSWER BOOK.

2.1 The international community has developed a code of conduct for policing, which is called the Code of Conduct for Law Enforcement Officials (CCLEO).

2.2 The police must never show that the amount of force used was just enough to achieve their objective. This will keep their secret of self-defense safe.

2.3 In a police service, very little room is allowed for the use of discretion.

2.4 A police force works on rules and regulations, which are to be applied strictly.

2.5 An advantage of having good leaders is that the leader will be closer to the team action, enabling the team to observe the qualities which he/she was originally appointed for.

2.6 Police undercover work is also known as overt work.

2.7 Police tactics such as stop and search operations cannot be considered as problem-oriented responses that will require little, if any, community involvement.

2.8 The word 'education' can be traced to the Latin word 'e-ducere' which meant 'to lead out'.

2.9 Micronutrients are nutrients that the body needs in large quantities such as proteins and fats.

2.10 It is not helpful to monitor and record your own dietary and hydration intake because your body will crave food and water.

QUESTION 5

Read the article below and answer ALL the questions.

A community police team at Ezibayeni, Hluhluwe and Nongoma area requested the police to conduct an intelligence-driven operation by KwaMsane Tactical Response Team members. The operation started in the early hours of Friday, 20 July 2018, searching for most-wanted suspects linked to various cases. The operation yielded fruitful results when the members arrested four suspects for possession of unlicensed firearms, ammunition and possession of a stolen vehicle. During the crossfire one of the suspects sustained an injury. Two suspects, including the injured one, were arrested at the scene. A firearm with 11 rounds of ammunition was found in the suspects' possession. The injured suspect was taken to hospital for medical attention where he is under police guard. The other two suspects fled the scene on foot to the nearby bushes. The team worked tirelessly until late last night searching for the two suspects who managed to flee the scene. They were traced and arrested in the Nongoma area while trying to flee to Gauteng. All the arrested suspects are aged between 20 and 28. They are expected to appear in the Magistrates' Court on Tuesday, 24 July 2018, on charges of possession of an unlicensed firearm, ammunition, possession of suspected stolen property and attempted murder of police officials.
