INSTRUCTIONS TO CANDIDATES FOR FASHION DRAWING N5 P2

Use the instructions to prepare for FASHION DRAWING N5 P2 which will be written shortly.

1. Use the theme in INSTRUCTION 6 to prepare for the question paper.

2. Candidates are allowed to bring all information, fabric samples, accessories, trimmings, magazine pictures and other necessities which they have collected into the examination venue for the five-hour examination in which they have to complete a set of fashion boards and sketches on the given theme as it is done in the industry.

4. Candidates are not allowed to bring completed fashion sketches or fashion boards into the examination venue. All fashion sketches must be done during the five-hour examination. Croquis will be provided.

3. The question paper consists of THREE questions which include THREE different types of sketches or boards on the given theme. The specific sketches will be given to the candidates at the beginning of the five-hour examination.

5. Each question, fashion board or set of sketches counts 100 marks for a total of 300 marks.

6. Use the theme ‘IN THE BEGINNING’ as inspiration and design a range of ladies' casual wear to be exhibited in Durban.

   All drawings and fashion boards must be done during the formal examination.

   Candidates must supply their own drawing paper and cardboard on which to do the drawings as well as colour mediums. Cardboards will be needed for finishing off final fashion boards. The boards must be A3. Colours must complement the range. Neatness and a professional layout are important. Candidates must also bring along enough A3 envelopes in which to put their completed drawings before handing them in.
