- Contract with an enemy of the state is void

[6]QUESTION 6

- Such contracts are binding on all parties.
- A married person under the age of 21. Once a minor marries he/she obtains full contractual capacity, provided the marriage was agreed to by the natural/legal guardian.
- A minor between the ages of 18 and 21 may apply to the Supreme Court in his/her judicial area to be appointed a major or fully contractible person. Not just any minor can do this, there must be a specific reason for such action.
- Where Emancipation takes place. This happens where a minor, 15 years or older, runs his/her own business. He/she is now permitted by the guardian, either expressly or implied, to contract for the business. The emancipation takes place regarding the business only; any other contracts are still concluded with the guardians help or consent.
- Through ratification by the minor upon reaching age 21. This occurs where a minor contracted without consent, and either the guardian can make the ratification or the minor himself on reaching maturity.
- There are statutory exceptions where various laws allow the minor to contract.
- The Post Office Act allows a person over age 7 to deposit and withdraw money from a savings account.
- A minor over 16 can make a will in terms of the Wills Act.
- A minor over 16 can donate his/her body or body tissue for research purposes.
